

Philanthropic Leadership Award

For 100 years, Proctors has been the community's gathering place for movies, music, Broadway, comedy, and more. It has grown alongside Schenectady and the Capital Region, becoming a vital cultural, educational, and economic anchor. Proctors Collaborative enriches the community through accessible arts-driven education, rich civic engagement, and innovative public partnerships impacting the lives of those it serves and helping drive downtown revitalization.